

About Taos

Taos is a unique small town in northern New Mexico's high desert at 7,000 feet. Bounded by the Sangre de Cristo Mountains, the Rio Lucero to the north and the Rio Grande de Ranchos to the south, Taos is known for its striking landscape, adobe architecture, artists and art galleries and blend of 3 cultures - Native American, Spanish and Anglo.

To learn more about the landmarks, arts, museums, culture and events in Taos, see: <https://taos.org>

To learn more about the Taos Pueblo, see <http://taospueblo.com>

The closest international airport is the Albuquerque International airport, 130 miles from Taos. The Santa Fe Municipal airport is 70 miles from Taos.